2 If clauses

2.1 Type 0

Present Simple + Present Simple

Used for facts that are generally true

Example: If you stand in the rain, you get wet.

2.2 Type 1

Present Simple + Will / Won't

Used for a likely situation in the future

Example: If it rains, we will cancel the trip.

2.3 Type 2

Past simple + Would + Verb

Used for hypothetical or unlikely situations

Example: If I won the lottery, I would travel a lot.

2.4 Type 3

Past perfect + Would have + Past Participle

Used when someone is imagining a different past

Example: If you had studied, you would have passed the exam.

To note:

1. If there is "would", it is always in the past

2. If there is "will", it is always present simple
3. If there is the past perfect, there is always would + have
